

Holy Apostles "Grapevine"

The Monthly Newsletter of Holy Apostles Episcopal Church

FROM THE DESKS OF
PASTORS SHERYL AND CHRIS KESTER-BEYER

Dear Friends in Christ,

Think about it, how many times does an angel or Jesus Himself, say to someone, "Do not fear." Of course that might be a typical reaction to realize you're encountering the divine presence. Still, the divine admonition is, "Do not be afraid."

You've heard this gag: "Life is a test. It is only a test. If this were an actual life, you'd have been given instructions."

Guess what? This is your real life. How you live it tells everyone what you think is important—and it tells God what you think is important. Jesus dares us to live a fearless life, one that loves beyond reason, trusts beyond expectation, hopes beyond the here-and-now, and gives beyond common sense; one that is lived fully open to what is possible to bring the Kingdom of God to our real lives, in our real world.

Real life is everywhere: in ourselves, in our families, at our work, with our neighbors, with our money, and, yes, in our church. What each and every one of us does matters to others and to God, because it has the power to enrich or deprive life of its full meaning, and it has the power to bring us closer to or further from God. That may seem obvious but often we feel powerless to either change or alter the direction of our lives or the lives of others. But our actions, or inactions do affect others even if others choose not to be influenced either for good or for ill, they are still being affected, challenged by what we do. To boldly go, as the old Star Trek program put it, should be our approach to this thing we call life.

As the summer draws to a close, and before school and fall schedules kick in, it might be good to name the things that fill us with fear and keep us from being the people God intended us to be, people who live fearlessly for God. Consider four questions: What are you afraid of? Who else might share that fear? What are your fears keeping you from becoming? What would you attempt to do if you knew you could not fail? Especially, this last question, for God has promised us this one thing. We may lose everything, yet in Christ, we will not fail.

July Reminders

As we wrap up the month of July,
there are a couple of events coming up here at the end of the month.

On Tuesday, July 23, 6-8 PM,
Brother James Dowd will be at Holy Apostles leading a session on Centering Prayer.

Wednesday, July 31 will be a Fifth
Wednesday meal at Beecher Hall.

Pastor Chris will be grilling burgers and dogs, so any sides to accompany would be appreciated.

Thank You

Thank you to everyone who helped clean up the church and grounds either on the Sunday cleanup day, or by doing one of the jobs listed on the separate signup sheet. All jobs were completed! Special thanks to the Hughsons for spraying both parking lots for weeds, to Jenny for weeding and mulching the front corner flower bed, and to Stephanie C. for helping weed and for planting the Pentecost geraniums. If anyone would like to volunteer to keep the flower beds weeded, and flowers deadheaded on a regular basis, please let me know. Maryruth Reed, Senior Warden
